Public libraries already submitting data; training still available

Congratulations to Gentry County Library, Marceline Carnegie Library, Rolla Public Library, and Sedalia Public Library for being the first libraries to submit their statistical report data using the online Bibliostat Collect software.

November 12 is the deadline for submitting the annual statistical data required by the State Library. Public libraries must use Bibliostat Collect to submit their data, and the State Library will hold two more sessions this week to help library directors and staff use the program. Space is still available in the sessions listed below, and those interested in attending may register onsite. The sessions run from 10 a.m. to 11:30 a.m.

Bibliostat training schedule:

- October 13, 2004, 10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
  Daniel Boone Regional Library, Columbia
  H.E. Sever Memorial Library, Kahoka
- October 14, 2004, 10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m.
  Springfield-Greene County Library District, The Library Center
  Dunklin County Library, Kennett

If you have questions about collecting your library's statistical information, contact Michaela Hansen, library administration consultant, at 800-325-0131, ext. 11, or michaela.hansen@sos.mo.gov.
